David Robertson Appointed to Clay County Utility Authority's Board of Supervisors

JACKSONVILLE, Florida – October 17, 2008 – David Robertson, Chief Operating Officer and Executive Vice President of the Jacksonville, Florida-based Reynolds, Smith and Hills, Inc., has been appointed to the Clay County Utility Authority's Board of Supervisors for a three-year term.

“As a resident of Clay County for many years, I am fortunate to have this opportunity to give back to a great community,” said Robertson.

Robertson joins the Clay County Utility Authority's seven-member board of supervisors, all of whom may serve no more than three consecutive terms. Six of the Board Members are appointed by the Clay County Board of County Commissioners (“BCC”) and one is appointed by the Governor of the State of Florida (“Governor”).

As Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of RS&H, Robertson is responsible for the company's six operating programs: Aerospace and Defense, Aviation, Commercial, Institutional, Transportation and Public Infrastructure. In addition he plans the strategic direction of the firm, as well as its expansion nationally. Mr. Robertson sits on the Company's Board of Directors and serves as its Secretary and Treasurer.
